And the Isaac goes to

On Saturday, May 25, the ISAACS were held at the Mishler Theatre. Eleven schools from throughout the region participated in the event. Throughout the evening, each school performed one musical number from their spring musical performance.

The mission of ACT's Isaacs Awards Program is to encourage and support excellence in high school musical theatre in our region through an annual awards event that recognizes student achievement.

The AAHS Drama Club's production of Little Shop of Horrors won 10 Isaac awards and $7,000 in scholarships. And last, but, not least, AAHS walked away with the coveted award for Best Overall Production!

Other awards included:

The $4,000 Mount Aloysius Isaacs Scholarship – Samantha Crider

Best Actor in a Featured Role and a $1,000 scholarship – Kyle Dennis

Runner Up Best Actor in a supporting Role – Jarrett Hann

Best Stage Crew

The MVP Award and Runner Up for Best Choreography – Morgan Hamel

Best Ensemble Award won by "The Urchins"- Samantha Peterson, Raquel Dunio, Emily Latten, Emilee DeFrancesco, Morgan Hamel and Isabella Kennedy

The Achievement in Design Award and $1000 scholarship - Anthony Pater

Runner Up Best Actress in a Leading Role - Paige DeGennaro

Runner Up Best Musical Number for "Suddenly, Seymour"

Congratulations to the cast and crew of Little Shop of Horrors!!!
