Eighteen BART Scholars Receive John and Abigail Adams Scholarship

ADAMS, MA – November 26, 2019 – Berkshire Arts and Technology (BART) Charter Public School proudly announces that 18 members of the senior class are recipients of the John and Abigail Adams scholarship. The John and Abigail Adams Scholarship provides merit-based credit toward tuition for up to eight semesters of undergraduate education at a Massachusetts state college or university (with the exception of the Massachusetts College of Art and Design). Alyssa Anderson, Driss Bourzgui, Sarah deBethune, Gwendolyn Farnsworth, Miles Fippinger, Andrew Gillman, Grace Krzanik, William Peets, Ashley Pixley, Finley Root, Luke Salinovici, Sean Salinovici, Alison Sanchez, William Schrade, Gianna Sondrini, Kylie Taylor, Nicholas Viggiano, and Philip Williams all received this award.

In order for a student to qualify they must score Advanced on their grade 10 MCAS English Language Arts, Mathematics tests, or STE (Biology, Chemistry, Introductory Physics or Technology/Engineering) and Proficient or Advanced on the remaining 2 tests. Additionally, their combined MCAS scores must place them in the top 25% of their classmates within the school they attend or the district in which they reside. The waiver is good for up to 8 semesters of undergraduate education.

BART is a nationally recognized, award-winning, tuition-free public middle and high school focused on preparing students for college. To date, 100% of BART’s graduates have passed a college course and have been accepted into college prior to graduation. In 2019, BART was recognized by MassLive Media as #2 among all Massachusetts high schools in college placement. BART does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

###