

---

Project Zero at Quaker Valley School District
Making Thinking Visible
February 20th, ~ 8:00 am – 3 pm ~ Quaker Valley Middle School

---

8:00-8:15 – Registration and Light Breakfast

8:15-8:30 – Welcome – Opening Remarks

8:30-10:00 – Plenary—Making Thinking Visible—Mark Church

10:00-10:15 – Break

10:15-12:00 – Workshops and Courses

- Create, Engage and Reflect: Capturing Transformation in Learning – Erik Lindemann & Heidi Doucette (Room 302)
- Making Thinking Visible in Mathematics – Mark Church (Room 314)
- Perspective-Taking to Foster Deeper Understanding – Ryan Kelly (Room 312)
- Making Thinking Visible by: Looking closely, Exploring Complexity and Finding Opportunity – Nina Strelec and Andrea Croft (Room 320)
- Making Thinking Visible Through Maker-Centered Learning—Christine Forrest and Tom Forrest (Room 230)
- Making Thinking Visible in the World Language Classroom - Stephanie DeLuca and Tara Surloff (Room 215)
- Creating Engaging Learning Opportunities Through Discourse and the Learning Environment—Jennifer Stewart, Dana Simile, Kerry McGrath Benson & Olivia Magnuson (Room 316)

12:00-1:00 – Catered Lunch – (Gymnasium)

1:00-1:45 – Special Interests

- Forging Relationships that Empower Learners – Amy Keller (Room 326)
- Engaging in Dialogue with Current Events – John Doucette (Room 305)
- Depth vs Breadth Teaching for Understanding in the A.P. Curriculum – Michael Pastor (Room 325)
- Mindset Theory: Incorporating a Growth Mindset approach into teaching and learning – Matt Parrish (Room 205)
- Making Visible Our Core Values – Jeff Evancho (Room 315)

1:50-2:35 – Special Interests

Quaker Valley Faculty Department Sharing and Reflection

- Making Visible Our Core Values – Jeff Evancho (Room 315)
- Making Thinking Visible in Elementary Settings to Promote Global Thinking –Erik Lindemann (Room 302)

2:35-2:45 – Break - Travel to Auditorium

2:45-3:00 – Closing Remarks and Future Opportunities

