PLANNING FOR COLLEGE BOUND STUDENTS

(LESSON 12.4, 12.5)

Goals: Students will learn about their options at California Community Colleges and gain insight on the steps involved in applying to and enrolling. Students will become familiar with and review logistics and tasks to complete before transitioning to college.

COUNSELOR DISCUSSION POINTS:

- What are your next steps after you apply to college?
- Have you thought about Community College
- Do you intend to get a certificate, an associate degree and/or transfer to a four-year institution in order to complete a bachelor's degree?

CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

- Widely Available - Lots of Campuses
- “Two-Year” Institutions

ASSOCIATE DEGREE FOR TRANSFER

What is it?

- An Associate Degree for Transfer (ADT) will help you transition from a California Community College (CCC) to a four-year California State University (CSU).
- The Associate Degrees for Transfer (ADT) include Associate in Arts (AA-T) and Associate in Science (AS-T) degrees. These degrees are specifically designed for transfer to the CSU.

HOW CAN AN ADT HELP YOU?

- You will have priority admission to CSU with junior standing, but not guaranteed to a specific CSU campus or program.
- You will be given a special GPA advantage when applying to CSU campuses or majors.
- You will only need 60 more semester units (or 90 quarter units) to complete a bachelor's degree in a similar discipline as your associate degree.
- Many CSU campuses participate in the California Promise Program. Under this program, students with an ADT from a California Community College can make a pledge to complete their bachelor's degree in two years. In return, they receive additional benefits, such as priority registration, specialized advising, and other incentives.
