In attending this event, my responsibility includes upholding:

1. BMHS has a Zero Tolerance Policy, regarding the use or possession of tobacco, alcohol, and drugs. Please be aware that Interquest Canine Detection Services will be present at BMHS before students board the bus.
2. Regulations stated in the BMHS Handbook as well as Disneyland rules and guidelines.
3. The student MUST go and return on the bus at the times designated. NO EXCEPTIONS.
4. Current BMHS ID is required for admittance to this event.
5. ATTIRE: Please adhere to the following dress code for Grad Nite at Disneyland California Adventure. DO NOT assume any liberties with these guidelines. Anyone not adhering to the guidelines will not be permitted to board the bus, will not receive a refund, and will be sent home. BMHS reserves the right to refuse admittance to any student who does not adhere to the dress-code.

Students are to dress in a manner that is modest, clean, and appropriate to a Catholic school academic environment. Attire for both males and females should fit properly and reflect modesty and good taste. All policies with regards to school appropriate attire and modesty will apply, and students are still restricted by the items listed under the "prohibited items" of the Dress Code on page 34 in the Student Handbook. While parents and students have the primary responsibility for personal appearance, the Administration is responsible for interpreting dress regulations.

I understand and agree to abide by all of the policies and regulations outlined in the BMHS Handbook and by Disneyland. I understand there are serious consequences if I choose not to do so.
