1. Why did Carlos want to get hummingbirds to come to his house?
   a. He thought they were pretty birds.
   b. He saw them at the botanical gardens on a field trip.
   c. He read about them in a book at school.
   d. He wanted to learn more about hummingbirds.

2. Mom frowned, “I missed them”. How do you think Carlos’ mom was feeling when she missed seeing the hummingbirds?
   a. happy
   b. angry
   c. disappointed
   d. worried

3. How did Carlos make hummingbird nectar for the feeder?
   a. He took some from the red petunia plants on his porch.
   b. He bought it at the garden store.
   c. He decided to use water in his hummingbird feeder, not nectar.
   d. He boiled water and added sugar and let it cool in the fridge.

4. Which line from the text makes you think that more hummingbirds came to Carlos’ house?
   b. Around it were three tiny birds
   c. “I’m sure they’ll be back, soon.” And, of course, Carlos was right.
   d. No birds came on Saturday.

5. Read the story, “A Place for Hummingbirds”. Look at the picture in the story. Based on what you learned about hummingbirds in the story, why does a hummingbird feeder look the way it does? Use examples from the text to support your answer.