COCISD Education Foundation awards 2018-19 grants

The Coldspring-Oakhurst CISD Education Foundation (COEF) awarded a total amount of $37,800 in grants to COCISD teachers and directors for its 2018-19 grant cycle. COEF directors presented a check to the COCISD Board of Trustees on Monday, Nov. 26th. This is the 7th year the COEF has awarded grants since the group began in 2011.

This year's awards will benefit students on every campus. The grants will provide new computers for Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd grade classrooms at James Street Elementary, flex seating for science students at Lincoln Junior High, and a cutting edge Z-Space program for science students at Coldspring-Oakhurst High School, among others. A district-wide grant was also awarded to fund a program designed to improve parent-teacher communication.

Thank you, COEF!

The COEF has awarded more than $100,000 for innovative teaching grants since it began.

The vision of COCISD is Creating Opportunities for All!

Did you know?

- Phase D of the bond construction has been approved by the COCISD Board of Trustees. This will include construction of the new single-point entry to the high school, the Career & Technical Education (CTE) wing, and an agriculture education projects facility. Construction is expected to begin in January.
- The COCISD website is under construction as well. We are making several changes to the campus websites including new student-centered tabs on each site, video tutorials for students and parents, and more. We'll keep you posted!

Coldspring FFA lets down their hair for a good cause

You won't want to miss this year's Womanless Pageant, sponsored by the Coldspring FFA.

The Coldspring FFA has carried on the tradition of a role-reversal extravaganza for as long as most people can remember. It's a great way for students to collect food and funds for local senior citizens.

Join us at the Coldspring-Oakhurst High School cafeteria on Friday, Dec. 14th, at 6:30 p.m. for an evening of family-friendly fun and laughs, for a good cause.

Bring five canned food items or $5 to get in at the door. All proceeds will benefit the Coldspring Senior Center.

The Coldspring FFA holds the Womanless Pageant each year as a way to collect food and funds to benefit local senior citizens. All proceeds are donated to the Coldspring Senior Center.
