The Baillie Players Produce “Frosty the Snowman”

The Baillie Players from Inman, South Carolina supported three local schools with their winter performances of “Frosty the Snowman” during the week of December 11th.

The Baillie Players is a touring theatre company that visits over 75 schools every year from South Carolina through Louisiana, assisting teachers and schools in providing theatrical experiences for students. Ben Hazel Primary, Brunson Elementary, and Hampton Elementary each had successful performances.
