Berkshire Arts & Technology Charter Public School Set to Hold Semi-Annual Arts Showcase

ADAMS, Ma – Berkshire Arts & Technology Charter Public School will present its semi-annual Arts Showcase on Thursday, November 17, at 6 p.m.

The Arts Showcase is a chance for students in the various art elective programs at BART to display their hard work and talents to fellow students, family, and the community. This year the showcase will include not just visual artists but a variety of dramatic and musical performances including the BART Chorus and slam poetry.

All visual artists will have their work on exhibition throughout the school. Artwork will include watercolors, still-life drawings, digital photographs, and digital animations.

Artwork will be on display starting at 6 p.m.; performances will begin at 7 p.m. in the school atrium.

BART is a nationally recognized, award-winning, tuition-free public middle and high school focused on preparing students for college. One hundred percent of BART's graduates have passed a college course and have been accepted into college prior to graduation. BART does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability or sexual orientation.
