“The transition from high school to college was intimidating and nerve wrecking. However, my mentor Gail Solo not only gave me confidence in pursuing goals that seemed unreachable to me but her advice has fueled my ambitious mindset and guided me in my college career.”

-Rocio, UC Davis Junior

“Having a mentor has helped me with my endeavors because their guidance has made my college experience significantly easier for me. As a first-generation college student, it has been difficult for me to know how to navigate through college. Because of this, I am grateful that I have amazing mentors who are always willing to help me in whatever way possible and who make navigating through college easier.

-Jesus, Harvard Freshman

We need you!

Become an encouraging source of guidance and friendship to a worthy LA School of Global Studies Student!

Starting in fall 2018 we hope to begin a role modeling/mentorship program by which our good students will secure extra nurturing, wisdom, and empowerment from YOU!

We know you are busy, but we only ask that you commit to a once monthly meet-up or facetime or phone call with your student, for one year. Of course, you can form a more frequent realtime, telephonic, or virtual presence if you choose; and if you choose to stay connected to your student for longer than one year, that is what we would hope as well.

We will offer you some guidance and training, and we'll be available for oversight, questions and concerns. Our paramount goal is to encourage our students to do their best academically; to help them through the college application process; and to help them become grounded, healthy, and happy members and future leaders of our community.

For now, please send the information on the reverse side of this flyer to us and we will contact you in or about September 5, 2018 with more detailed information, including a training session we hope to hold in October. You will be paired with a student of the same gender based on information we learn from you.

We welcome you to share this cordial invitation with any caring, trusted, and conscientious colleagues so we can attempt to provide as many students as possible with good role models like you.

Please send the following information to Gail Solo at gailsololaw@gmail.com and Diane Kantack at diane.kantack@lasgs.lausd.net.
