4. Reports and Concerns:
  - a. Admin:
    - i. WASC Accreditation self-study is due this week. The visit will be 2/26-3/2 and the SCC will meet with the team on 2/26 at 5 pm in the Green Room.
    - ii. We had Finals over the last three days before Winter break. It was interesting that students have begun to take exams seriously as many showed up for the makeups.
    - iii. We had a successful earthquake and tsunami drill on the last day of school.
  - b. Parents:
    - i. 5th lane in Nanakuli opens 1/16 but contraflow continues. There should be two lanes out in the afternoon and 3 lanes out in the morning. Also, 3 lanes in in the afternoon.
    - ii. Construction: Pool will come down soon and then re
    - iii. Shout out to National Honor Society for their amazing support!
    - iv. PTSA will look into getting a calendar on the school’s website.
  - c. Teachers:
    - i. Seniors should be in academic classes unless they have a job, medical issues, or are in college. Teachers who feel students are being released inappropriately should meet with the VP and counselors.
    - ii. Tripler internship begins 2/2 and college interns come to work with HHS on 1/19.
  - d. Classified: No report.
  - e. Community:

- i. Wa'ianae Mall Christmas Festival and Winter Wonderland were successful. Learned a lot from it and mostly that delegation and communication are key. Also, input from younger people is valuable.
    - ii. WHS vision and mission with focus on life-long learning and the ability to compete in a global community is vital. The community (EDC) is trying to develop revenue streams and grow the community's skills and assets. Collaboration is key.
  - f. Students:
    - i. College classes are underway. Not everyone got notice of start date.
    - ii. ADA project is underway; contact is VP Oshita.
    - iii. When late to school and no security, then go to an academy office for a pass.
