Library Happenings!

April is Poetry Month!!!

April 18 is Poem in Your Pocket Day
Be on the lookout for poems!

April 22 is Earth Day!
What can you do to protect our Earth?

What we're reading

I hope to have everyone reading poetry, reciting poetry, memorizing poetry and sharing poems.

Later in the month, we'll be discussing the importance of trees and what they do for us and our environment.

Library learning

Kinder through 5th Grade:

- Poetry!
- Earth Day, recycling
- Fiction: main idea, theme, summarize, edit, recommending

Reminders

On May 3 we will be hosting author and singing zoologist, Lucas Miller.

You will have the opportunity to purchase books and CD's autographed by Mr. Miller. Look for forms to come home on April 29 and 30.
