

park century school

presents leaders in the field of dyslexia research and Co-Directors of the Yale Center for Dyslexia & Creativity

SALLY SHAYWITZ, M.D. and BENNETT SHAYWITZ, M.D. "The Unexpected Nature of Dyslexia"

Wednesday, November 14 at 8:30 a.m.
Park Century School Auditorium
3939 Landmark St., Culver City, CA 90232

FREE and open to the public
RSVP required

The Shaywitzes' presentation will explore critical new research findings on the nature of dyslexia, discuss the benefits of a specialized school, and introduce the Shaywitz DyslexiaScreen™, a new instrument created by Sally Shaywitz and used by teachers to efficiently and reliably screen kindergarteners, first graders, and second graders for dyslexia.

RSVP at www.parkcenturyschool.org/events/

Featured in a recent edition of the New York Times for their expertise and dedication to dyslexia research, Sally E. Shaywitz, M.D. and Bennett A. Shaywitz, M.D. carry out cutting-edge experimentation to advance the science of dyslexia while also devoting themselves to caring for children and adults who are dyslexic. Recently-named recipients of the 2019 Genius Award from Liberty Science Center, the Shaywitzes have authored over 350 scientific articles and works, including Sally Shaywitz's award-winning, bestselling book Overcoming Dyslexia (Alfred Knopf, 2003, Vintage, 2005). Additionally, the Shaywitz DyslexiaScreen™ (SDS, Pearson), created by Sally Shaywitz and released in 2016, provides a groundbreaking tool for teachers to efficiently and reliably screen kindergarteners, first graders, and second graders for dyslexia.