The Dorothy Grzankowski Endowed Scholarship seeks to award a $500 scholarship to one graduating senior, who intends to pursue a degree in Education. Dorothy earned her BA in Education from currently named Kean University and a Master's in Education from Rutgers University. The scholarship was founded in Dorothy's memory by her daughter Susan Bischoff, mother of James '01. The scholarship will be presented at the annual Awards Night in late April. While the financial needs of the possible scholarship candidate may come under consideration in the selection process, the primary focus when selecting the most qualified student will be based on the above bulleted criteria.
