

For 2019–2020 Seniors Only

Are you applying to colleges that require personal statements or other essays in their application package? How do you distinguish yourself from every other college applicant? Sign up for this College Application Essay Workshop and a portion of your fee will benefit your PTSA.

The workshop consists of four sessions designed to help college bound seniors tackle the task of writing exceptional application essays.

In the first two sessions, students will learn about application forms and essay requirements, selecting subjects and defining specific topics, while exploring various methods of organizing essays. During the final two sessions, instructors will help students on an individual basis (counseling blocks of 15 minutes) to polish the essays they have begun.
