

College Essentials Toolkit Presentation #4:

Options & Opportunities

A Panel Discussion with College Admission Reps

Thursday, March 14th @ 6:30pm in the MPR

Hear from a selection of schools from East Coast to West; a small, private liberal arts college to a large, public Tier 1 research university; “Big Sports” PAC12 and BIG12 universities to a mid-sized school; a “faith based” school, as well as a highly selective international university!

This Panel Discussion is meant to differentiate and highlight Options & Opportunities at different TYPES of colleges and universities in and around the nation, as well as internationally!

This presentation is appropriate for parents/students grades 9-11, but MOST IMPORTANT for our sophomore and junior classes! This presentation will not be available online. Hope to see you on Thursday, March 14th at 6:30pm in the MPR. Our panelists include the following institutions who will speak to their “type” of institution, as well as to the region in which they’re located:

Dickinson College, Texas Christian University, University of Oregon,

Loyola Chicago University, University College Dublin
