

Lion Team Rules

We are excited to have you on the Lion Team! The 8th grade year is your opportunity to grow as a young adult. This includes self-advocating, learning responsibility and independence, and implementing good organizational and study skills to ensure a successful school year. We will assist you in your growth as a young adult, and we expect your full effort in this endeavor.

Classwork and Homework

Late Work: We do not accept late work for credit. Late work will earn a 0.

Exception: LARGE projects/assignments Projects one day late = half credit Projects two or more days late = zero

If you are absent, you are responsible to get make-up work (projects, homework, quizzes, tests, notes, etc). Missed work should be completed in as many days as the absence. If you missed a test/quiz, you have one week to make arrangements to make it up. Any assignments that were due the first day of an absence are due the day you return from an absence.

If you miss school due to a family educational trip, all assignments are due on the day of your return. You must obtain all assignments before you leave for the trip. Extensions may be given for special circumstances, if the student makes arrangements with teachers BEFORE deadlines.

If you are absent for school sanctioned events (music practices, field trips, sporting events, etc.), you are responsible for asking for work before you leave. Any assignments due the day of the school sanctioned absence must be turned in before you leave for the event.

CHEATING POLICY: As per Student Rights, Responsibilities and Discipline online handbook: First Offense: zero (0) grade to be given on assignments, projects or tests where cheating occurred. Second Offense: Additional penalties will be enforced by the building principal or classroom teacher.

Class Rules

All students will use their agenda book to log daily assignments.

Students should be on time, prepared, and respectful at all times. Be an Active Learner!

Students will be able to use devices during activity period, at teacher discretion. Otherwise, electronic devices must be turned off and not visible. Students must obtain teacher permission to use any electronic device in class, and may use devices upon teacher permission. Electronic devices that are turned on or visible without teacher permission will be confiscated. Privileges may be revoked on an individual or class basis. Earbuds are not to be worn in classes.

No food or drinks permitted in class unless special permission is given by teachers.

Please refer to teachers' syllabi for any additional class rules or homework expectations that may apply.

Morning Homeroom and Afternoon Activity Period

You must be in your homeroom by the late bell. Students are to watch announcements, work on homework, read, or study during homeroom and activity period.

Activity period is your opportunity to get work done and prepare for tests or quizzes. All Lion Team homerooms are quiet study halls. All students must bring work to activity period every day! You can only leave activity period if you have a club, activity, sport, library pass, tutoring, or work to do for another teacher. YOU MUST HAVE A PASS. Students are not permitted to go to other homerooms to "hang out" or visit. All students must sign out of activity period.
