Weekly Newsletter

Issue Date: Friday, May 11, 2018

AP Testing: This week and next week our students take exams that can potentially earn them college credit. Below AP Lit students pose for a picture before their exam.

Volleyball: Congratulations to ES Volleyball for finishing 1st in League!

Science Fair: Elementary students have been working on their Science projects. Kinder students below hypothesize about how flowers change colors and fifth graders work on mixtures & compounds. The top projects were displayed in Madonna Hall.

A big congratulations to our Elementary Robotics Team for their excellent work at the "Rally in the Valley" competition last Saturday. Look for a feature article on them next week!
