Dear Parents/Guardians:

Our Parent Advisory Committee within our Special Education Department at the Altoona Area School District is excited to start the 2018-2019 school year. Our team will be working on establishing parent supports and trainings for ALL of our parents and guardians.

We would like to share supportive parent contacts that may be helpful to you. These individuals have agreed to collaborate with parents and guardians within our school district. So, if you have any questions or concerns regarding your child's/children's programming within our school district, please contact one of them.
