Welcome to a new school year here at LSUS! For those who don't know me, my name is Mrs. Nehrenz I am happy and proud to be your new principal. It is such a blessing to be here. I am looking forward to watching everyone learn and grow this year. So far, I've seen the kids in the classrooms working hard practicing their new routines and procedures. Both the students and teachers seem eager and happy and are off to a good start to this new school year.

Thank you for choosing our school. We are here to serve you. Please call me or contact your child's teacher any time you have a question or concern. We are here to not only provide a good education for your child but to share the gospel and share the love of Jesus with every child we teach. We are so glad that you are part of our LSUS family.

Johnny Appleseed Weekend is coming up quickly!

It's that time of year! The Johnny Appleseed Festival is September 15-16. LSUS sponsors not just one booth but TWO. Not only does that mean twice the fun but twice as much help is needed to work during the weekend to help our school. Please take a look at your calendar. I know I will be out there along with the other teachers to be sure this event is as successful as possible. To be successful we need you!!!! We need you to commit to helping us work in one of the booths. One booth makes warm caramel sauce served over apple slices and the other one makes caramel corn the old fashioned way, using large kettles. Please consider how you can help. Use this as an opportunity to use your school volunteer hours. We need everyone to help as much as they can. Thank you! You can sign up in the office anytime.

Johnny Appleseed Caramel Making

We need adults and older children volunteers for all shift hours - 8th graders especially as they earn volunteer hours towards their trip! Shifts are 9am-12pm, 12pm – 3pm and 3pm – 6pm. Please call the office to volunteer your services! Caramel Making takes place at Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church, 1819 Reservation Dr.

Volunteer Hours

Did you know every family is responsible for volunteering their time and or talents to make this LSUS community stronger and better by helping out with just about anything? It's simple to do. 10 hours of volunteer hours per student is required. What can you do? Copy papers, laminate, cut things out, be a classroom helper, work at a fund raiser, do painting, or yard work. We have ideas and you may have something in mind. Please contact us about your volunteer hours in the school office. We hope to see you around!

Affordable Internet At Home

You may be eligible for Internet service at only $9.95 per month. Visit <https://www.internetessentials.com/apply> for more information!

Commissioning of Miss White

This Sunday at Peace Lutheran Church at 2:00pm Danielle White will be commissioned as a new teacher. She is a graduate of Concordia University and has been called to teach here at Lutheran South Unity School. We are so proud of her and so blessed to have her here.

Everyone is welcome to witness this event by attending the 2:00 service. Please join us! The rest of the staff will also be recognized in this service as Pastor Spira blesses them and shares God's word with them all as they rededicate their services to Him.
