Mission

Pope John Paul II High School assists in the formation of Catholic students to be full and practicing members of the Church while simultaneously recognizing and respecting the cultural diversity of our student body. We are a center of academic excellence rigorously preparing students to be contributing members of the global community with the ultimate goal of eternity in Heaven.

Accreditation by Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools

The Community

Royersford is a small-sized community of approximately 5,000. The community consists of both white and blue collar workers comprising a predominantly middle class population. Pope John Paul II High School draws from the surrounding communities of Montgomery County and as far as Philadelphia.

The School

Pope John Paul II is a four-year co-educational Roman Catholic High School and one of 17 secondary schools operated under the auspices of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

The School year is 36 weeks, 180 days. The year is broken into two semesters of 90 days each. There are 8 periods a day, each 45 minutes long.
