

Ways to Participate in Your Child's Education

There are many ways to be involved in your child's education. The following list is just a sample of things parents can do:

1. Express high expectations for his/her success
2. Encourage their learning and progress in school
3. Be a role model and show the value of learning and hard work
4. Read with and have frequent conversations with your child
5. Help with homework
6. Check book bags for paper, notes, etc
7. Make sure your child is well nourished
8. Make sure your child attends school regularly and on time
9. Establish a daily family routine
10. Monitor his/her out of school activities
11. Stay in touch with teachers by attending conferences, responding to notes or calls, and visiting the classroom
12. Support the Student Code of Conduct and Dress Code at your child's school
13. Use community resources such as libraries, afterschool programs (ACE), clinics, etc
14. Volunteer to serve on a School or District Level DecisionMaking Committee
15. Attend school events or activities including family and parent meetings
16. PRAISE YOUR CHILD AND NEVER UNDERESTIMATE THE POWER OF A HUG!!
