

Summer 2020 Extended School Year (ESY)

If your child is eligible for our Extended School Year Program, please see below for details.

The Secaucus Summer 2020 Extended School Year will run 4 days a week (Monday through Thursday) from Monday, July 13th to Thursday, August 13th at Clarendon School.

Students entering Pre-K through Grade 12 will attend Extended School Year at Clarendon School with the student start/end time 9:00am-1:00pm.

The need for Extended School Year will be discussed at your child's annual review meeting. Please contact your child's case manager if you have any questions or concerns.

Qualifying criteria includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Regression and recoupment - Question to consider: Is the child likely to lose critical skills or fail to recover these skills within a reasonable amount of time?
2. Ability of the student to interact with nondisabled peers
3. Emerging skills/breakthrough opportunities - Question to consider: Will a lengthy summer break cause significant problems for a child who is learning a key skill?
4. Interfering behavior - Question to consider: Does the child's behavior interfere with his or her ability to benefit from special education?
5. Nature and/or severity of disability
6. Ability of the child's parents to provide educational structure in the home
7. Behavioral and physical impairments

Please see attached FAQs from the NJDOE, Office of Special Education Programs for detailed information.

New Jersey Department of Education OSEP Extended School Year FAQs