

SOLICITATION OF FUNDS FROM AND BY STUDENTS

Solicitations on Behalf of Charitable Organizations

The Board of Education recognizes that participation in fund-raising for nonprofit, nonpartisan charitable organizations can help students develop a sense of social responsibility.

When approved in advance by the Board or its designee, funds may be solicited or materials distributed for those nonprofit, nonpartisan organizations that are properly chartered or licensed by state or federal law. (Education Code 51520)

Contests and Fund Raising for Students

School contests, fund raising and other activities which are to be conducted on property under the jurisdiction of the school District shall have approval of the Superintendent or designee in advance of the activity.
