Message from the Principal:

Dear Parents,

It is a proud moment to be a valued stakeholder of Owasso Public Schools. As we share the attached 2017 School Profile with you, we hope you share in our enthusiasm to be an Owasso Ram. We also hope you take the opportunity to be informed of the many other reasons the Owasso Seventh Grade Center is proud of its students and teachers.

Excellence in academics continues to be a part of our well-rounded school culture. In examining the achievement scores of our students, you'll see they scored considerably higher on the state exams than the state average.

Alongside test scores, our school leads the way in other areas that create college and career ready citizens. Students in the STEM classes pioneered new technologies and demonstrated true innovation. In fine arts our choir and band consistently earned superior ratings and impressed audiences across the area and state. Also, the Owasso News Crew was created and produced a weekly news cast to be viewed by our students, teachers and parents.

Thanks to the work of our Student Council, countless community members had their needs met. STUCOs hard work led to the purchase of 5 trikes, which are currently being enjoyed by special needs students in our community. From socks to canned food, our student leaders helped spark a wave of giving that lasted all year.

Additionally, the National Junior Honor Society, a group of over 150 high-achieving and compassionate students, impacted the community by making Easter baskets for nursing home residents and children, raising over $5,000 for Relay for Life, and collectively serving for over 900 hours in the community. Their annual Day of Caring spanned a variety of projects and organizations in a powerful show of community service.

It is clear that lives are being transformed as we carry out the mission of Owasso Public Schools. With that in mind, may we all press on and stay the course that is public education.

We are grateful for your wonderful students; we truly cannot do this without your support. Thank you for another great year of being an Owasso Ram!

Sincerely, J. Eric Nantois
