St. Joe to host College Fair

Homecoming Week will see the return of an annual event at St. Joseph Catholic School – one that means a lot to high school students.

St. Joe will host its annual College Fair, 8 to 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Sept. 18, in the gym. College and university representatives from across the nation are expected to attend to talk about their schools and academic programs they offer.

Besides attracting out-of-town schools – including the U.S. service academies – other attendees will include in-state schools like Mississippi State, Ole Miss, Southern Miss, Jackson State, Millsaps and Belhaven.

“The College Fair is an opportunity for 10th, 11th and 12th graders to meet with college admission counselors and have them answer the questions that they are interested in as far as the application process, scholarships and financial aid opportunities,” said Debbie Carrington, St. Joe’s high school guidance counselor.
