Refusal to Harm or Destroy Animals

The Governing Board recognizes that some students have a moral objection to dissecting or otherwise harming or destroying animals. California law grants these students the right to refrain from participation in instruction which involves such activities.

Students shall not be discriminated against because of a decision to exercise this right. (Education Code 32255.1)

The Board encourages staff to accommodate students who request alternative educational projects in lieu of those which entail harm or destruction of animals.
