BOARD MEETING UPDATE ON LOCAL CONTROL ACCOUNTABILITY PLAN

Lilia Fuentes, Interim Assistant Superintendent of Instructional Services, provided a detailed overview of PUSD’s continuous improvement process for engaging stakeholders in the development of the LCAP. Fuentes explained how PUSD actively consults with stakeholder groups, which include: students, teachers, principals, other school personnel, local bargaining units, parents and community members. Opportunities for face-to-face interactions with stakeholders take place throughout the year with groups like the LCAP Steering Committee, DAC, DELAC, PAC and Superintendent Student Advisory Council. These groups serve as facilitators to provide information to others and to solicit input and information that is used to identify emerging trends. Each group brings richness to the conversation and contributes to the development of a meaningful plan, year after year.

Complexifier

While complexifier doesn’t show up in most English dictionaries, you can use it to mean “a complicating factor.” No matter how much you love rabbits, keeping eight of them in your apartment will be a real complexifier for you.
