

Drafting/CAD

Collierville High School

The mission of the Drafting & CAD Technology Program is to provide specialized classroom instruction and practical experience in preparation for employment in the field. The course prepares individuals to assist engineers and architects in the design and drafting of electric circuits, maps, machines, and structures.