PARTNERS IN PURSUIT OF EXCELLENCE

June, 2018

Dear Seniors and Parents,

With graduation just ten days away, we share recurring concerns. Graduation is a celebration of the culmination of 12⁺ years in school. It is the start of college or other plans. Indeed, the ceremony is called “Commencement” because it is the start of the next chapter in the lives of graduates! However, student responsibility never ceases.

Seniors: Graduation is NOT an excuse for reckless behavior. Begin your future heading in the right direction.

SENIOR CELEBRATION is the product of much planning and preparation by parents. I thank them for their foresight, deliberation and time. I hope all seniors can enjoy the Senior Barbecue on Friday June 15, the Senior Tailgate on June 18, the Senior Prom on June 19, the Farewell Luncheon June 20 and the cruise June 21 on the night of graduation. These are all enjoyable events and the last times the Class of 2018 will all be together.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS must still be fulfilled. It is unfortunate if even one senior is not eligible to participate in graduation. It is our hope that all seniors complete all attendance and assignment requirements. Certainly, discipline problems will be addressed as warranted. Please: prevent potential problems!

DRINKING, unfortunately seems to increase each Spring. Driving exacerbates drinking issues and is a reason why we bus students to our proms. Students suspected of being “under the influence” are asked to leave the prom for an immediate drug & alcohol screening. Students in violation of school rules will be removed from activities including the Prom, Senior Celebration and Graduation.

PRANKS, anytime, are not condoned. Pranks often vandalize property or harass other people. Left unchecked, this misbehavior can escalate in future years to an even more troublesome level. Consequences will include detention, suspensions from school and/or bans from activities including the prom and/or graduation.

The Academic Awards Assembly on May 25 was a nice kick off for the last month of high school. We want this celebration of high school graduation to continue unmarred by inappropriate behaviors. Enjoy your final days together. You have earned the recognition and accolades that come with graduation. Plan for a memorable and respectful graduation. Please: Do Right!

Looking forward to an enjoyable Senior Commencement!

Sincerely,

William S. Miron, Ed. D.
