

Zion's Prayer Page

October 28 -- November 4, 2018

Sunday We will remember and celebrate the Lutheran Reformation this weekend. 501 years ago Martin Luther began a movement which brought people of God back to the sure words of the Bible. Thank the Lord for the truth which has been the center of our faith all of these years. Look for opportunities to share God's Word with others.

Monday Last week the Zion's teachers met with the parents of the students. Pray for teachers and students as they begin these next weeks of school. Pray for steady growth and maturity of all our students from the little preschoolers to the 7th and 8th graders.

Tuesday Pray for those who need the Lord's healing hand in their lives at this time. Leona Wilkening was involved in a serious vehicle accident. She has a number of broken bones and is undergoing a series of surgeries. Pray for healing. Rich Hoey had should replacement surgery. Pray that his recovery is going well. Michal Ann Kath, the mother of Lisa Killian, was recently diagnosed with breast cancer. Pray that the upcoming procedures and treatments will be great blessings and bring healing. Esther Doane had an infection and spent some days in the hospital. Pray that she is much better and back at the Florence Home by now. Others?

Wednesday Pray for calm and reasonable weather for our part of the country. Ask the Lord to be with the farmers as they are busy harvesting their crops. Pray for their safety and health during these busy weeks.

Thursday Ask the Lord to be with Lenny Zweig as he prepares for his kidney transplant tomorrow. Pray that all goes well with the person donating the kidney and for Lenny as he receives this gift of life. Thank the Lord for the medical expertise which makes this procedure possible. Pray also for a good recoveries for both of those involved.

Friday Ask the Lord to be with Carol Block as she retires from nursing career of six decades. Praise the Lord for the countless people she has served over the years. Ask the Lord to now be with Carol in the future as she continues to serve the Lord.

Saturday Ask the Lord to bless little Owen Anthony, son of Scott and Katie, as he is baptized this evening . Pray for the Lord to be with this young family as they grow in their love for each other and for the Lord.
