Dear Students:

The following books are required summer reading for students going into the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. Please choose one book for your grade.

Tenth Grade:

Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson
The Book Thief by Markus Zusak
Light in the Forest by Conrad Richter
The Perks of Being a Wallflower by Stephen Chbosky
Outrun the Moon by Stacey Lee

Eleventh Grade:

I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings by Maya Angelou
Christ in Concrete by Pietro di Donato
Born on the Fourth of July by Ron Kovic
Orphan Train by Kristina Baker Kline
I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter by Erika L. Sanchez

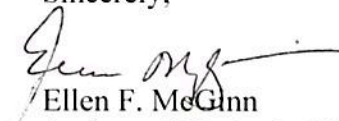

Twelfth Grade:

Wild by Cheryl Strayed
The Color of Water by James McBride
The Glass Castle by Jeannette Walls
The Kite Runner by Khaled Hosseini
The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao by Junot Diaz

Read carefully. List the words you do not know and use “post-its” to take notes. There will be an essay exam in September to test reading comprehension.

Enjoy your book and enjoy your summer!

Sincerely,

Ellen F. McGinn
Assistant Principal of English
