What is Mock Trial? Mock Trial is a simulation of a criminal court case with middle school students playing the courtroom roles. Teams of middle school students present the case in an actual courtroom at the Stanley Mosk Courthouse in Los Angeles. The team of students prepare and present the trial from the perspectives of both the prosecution and the defense. Mock Trial team members play different roles, including trial attorneys, witnesses, clerks and bailiffs. Presiding judges and attorneys evaluate each team's performance.

Who can join the Mock Trial Team? Students in 6th, 7th and 8th grade are invited to participate. Our 7th grade teacher Mrs. Cristina Garcia and parent attorney coaches Michelle House and Rebecca Meyer will be moderating this team.

Parents will be asked to provide transportation to and from the competition.
