The Academy of St. Elizabeth is a private, Catholic, college preparatory school for young women rooted in the traditions of excellence fostered by the Sisters of Charity of Saint Elizabeth. Our goal is to inspire each of our young women to acquire a strong sense of self, self-reliance, purpose, and vision; to develop her personal and academic talents and leadership skills and to imbue in her a code of moral responsibility that will be a compass for her life's journey. Established in 1860, the Academy of St. Elizabeth is the oldest high school for girls in the State of New Jersey, a designation that affirms the highest levels of tradition, excellence, and vitality. It is accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and holds membership in NJAIS, NCEA, and NAIS. The Academy of Saint Elizabeth is located in Convent Station, two miles east of Morristown, and twenty-five miles west of New York City. Its accessibility by car, train, or bus enables the Academy to draw its student population from a wide geographic area, including Morris County and the surrounding counties. The sending districts include both parochial and public elementary schools.
