

Middle School Summer Reading Assignment

Read your assigned novel and complete each assignment in your reading response journal. Your first grade in Language Arts class will be from your journal, as well as the AR test on your novel. You will be allowed to use your response packet to assist you on your AR test, so be sure to include all of the important events and characters from each chapter.

Rising 7th Graders - Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick

*Rising 8th Graders - Stargirl by Jerry Spinelli OR
The Wednesday Wars by Gary Schmidt*

 Journals for each novel were sent home with students on the last day of school. If you did not receive one, or lost your copy, then please visit the front office***
