

Summit Academy Falcon Update Tuesday, September 4, 2018

Loading/ Unloading

- Thank you for working diligently with us to have our loading & unloading procedures run smooth and efficient. Just a few quick reminders:
- Summit Academy releases M- TH @ 3:05 and Friday @ 1:05, we would like to remind all to pick up your students promptly.
- Any students that walk from the school will ONLY be able to cross roads and parking lots using established crosswalks and not cross through parking lots or driving areas without a crossing guard.
- We realize that this will be an inconvenience for some people, but the safety of your children is our first priority. Thank you for helping us to keep students safe at school.

Counseling Corner

- Why School Counselors?
Research shows the implementation of a college and career readiness school counseling program has a positive impact on student achievement. Summit Academy counselors are trained and continually participate in professional development to best serve our students and prepare them for life after school through.
 - Individual Plans for Student Success - College and Career Readiness Planning and student advisement
 - Dropout Prevention - Individualized interventions and resources focused on motivation and student achievement
 - Collaborative Classroom Instruction - Classroom presentations on stress management, suicide prevention, etc..
 - Responsive Services - Counselors are available to support students with emotional and mental health concerns.
- We recognize each student as individuals and realize there is not one single path for all. Please be sure to talk to your counselor about grades, attendance, graduation, college information, scholarships, schedule concerns, and to receive emotional support
- Jordan High School in conjunction with Deseret News are hosting a free screening of "Angst" (Raising awareness around Anxiety) On Thursday, September 6th at 6:30 PM. With a panel discussion to follow. Parents and students are invited to attend. For more information see the attached flyer.
