Monday night balloon release planned in memory of BHHS student

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE - August 4, 2017

BROOKINGS, Ore. — The family, teachers, coaches and friends of Dylan Speir are coming together to share support and memories at 7 p.m. Monday, Aug. 7, at the Brookings-Harbor High School baseball field (corner of Easy Street and Fern Avenue).

Speir, 15, died Tuesday after falling from sea cliff while fishing with friends in Brookings. He was a much-loved local high school student, baseball player and participant in youth theater productions.

He is survived by parents Joe and Brandy Speir; and younger siblings Grace, Noah and Hazel.

On Monday night, there will be a table with ribbon, pens and papers to write a memory or note. Light refreshments of pizza will be served. The event will culminate with a balloon release.

The gathering is sponsored by the Brookings-Harbor High School Booster Club.

For more information, contact Athletic Director Buell Gonzales at 541-469-7427 ext 2105.
