Dear Parents,

Today, a junior high student reported to school officials that there was a message written on one of the girl's bathroom restroom partitions stating, "2/15/19 I shoot the school". Police were notified and immediately started an investigation. If you or your student has information related to this situation you may report the information anonymously to Crimestoppers at 936-639-TIPS. A reward will be given for credible information that results in apprehension and prosecution. In addition you may call the Diboll ISD Police Department at 936-829-6171.

Additional police support will be provided to the campus as well as other safety precautions. Student and staff safety is our top priority.

Sincerely,

Vicki Thomas
Diboll ISD, Superintendent of Schools
