We are looking for 3-5 students to serve on a site Cell Phone Policy Committee. We are seeking input from students, parents, and staff. Our initial meeting will be in the Library Group Study Room on 4/11/19 from 3:15 p.m. - 4:15 p.m. If you are interested, please sign up with Mrs. Barela in Student Services.

Clubs and any other student groups sponsoring activities must not begin publicizing an activity until a proposal has been approved and returned to the advisor. To allow adequate time for approval and publicity, please submit your proposals at least two weeks in advance of the event. Flyers and posters must be initialed by the Commissioner of Publicity, the Commissioner of Clubs or Mr. Shotwell.

THE PFTs ARE COMING! THE PFTs ARE COMING! On Late Start Tuesday and Wednesday, April 16-17, @ 7:30am, the California Physical Fitness tests will be conducted at the SPHS gym and field. The following students should report to the gym for testing: 9th grade fall, winter and spring athletes who are not enrolled in a PE class; 9th grade students not enrolled in a PE class; 10th - 11th grade students who have not passed five out of the six PFTs; and 10th - 11th grade students who have not yet taken any of the California PFTs. Students who have met the graduation requirement of 20 credits in PE, and have passed five out of the six PFTs, will not be required to remain enrolled in PE in the 2019-2020 school year. Contact Ms. Wong at swong@spusd.net if you have questions.

AP Exam Registrants: for those who have registered for an AP exam through Tuesday, 3/12, please check the SPHS library windows for the new lists on creme colored paper. Check for the accuracy of your permanent ID number and AP exam registration/s. If you spot an error, please see Ms. Wong in the office immediately.
