All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr
ISBN #: ISBN-13: 978-1501173219

The assignment is to read and to consider how the novel is one of literary merit. There is no annotation or writing assignment attached to your summer reading of the novel. You will write an in-class essay on All the Light We Cannot See within the first week of AP Literature and Composition.

After the initial in-class essay, you will work with the novel so it is helpful to have it with you for the first week or so of the school year. You don't need to purchase the novel; feel free to check it out from your local library-keep in mind that you may want the novel for the beginning of the school year.
