2020 Larry Canfield Memorial Scholarship Award

On November 12, 2008, Sacramento County Sheriff’s Deputy Larry Canfield was tragically killed while in the line of duty. Deputy Canfield was a 1983 graduate of Galt High School where he excelled in sports and was an active member in the Future Farmers of America. To honor Deputy Canfield’s life, his family and friends have established a $750.00 scholarship in his name. The Canfield Memorial Scholarship will be issued annually to a GHS and LRHS student who exemplifies some of the qualities and traits Deputy Canfield possessed.

Application Eligibility and Requirements:

Applicants for this scholarship must be a GHS/LRHS Graduating Senior who is attending a trade/Vocational school, two year, or four-year college or university in the fall term.

Students receiving a full (four years) academic scholarship are not eligible to apply.

All sections of the application must be typed or legibly handwritten on a separated sheet of paper.

Scholarships will present at the Awards Banquet at GHS and LRHS.

Payment of scholarship will be payable to the recipient or school upon verification of enrollment.
