

The NBHS / North Bergen Museum Project

The North Bergen Library will be sponsoring the creation of The North Bergen Museum. This project will be ongoing through the next six months, including the summer months. The project will include a valuable learning experience for students interested in the museum sciences, local history, and social studies. The Social Studies Department is looking for student volunteers to assist in the collection, preservation and archiving material the museum will be obtaining. We kindly ask if you have any students interested in the following areas to have them see Mr. Maring or Mr. Brady in the Social Studies Department (room 203):

Technical Skills:

- Analyzing Artifacts
- Conservation Preventative Maintenance
- Exhibit Content Development
- Exhibit Development
- Exhibit Design
- Exhibit Implementation
- Exhibit Preparation
- Staging Exhibits

Research Skills:

- Cataloging
- Collection Development
- Developing Interpretive Materials
- Detail Orientated
- Evaluating Strengths and Weaknesses of Collections
- Soliciting Acquisitions

Students we are looking for should excel in the following areas:

- Active Listeners
- Collaborative Attitudes
- Communication Skills
- Strong Verbal Skills
- The Ability to Be Discrete with Confidential Information
- Fosters an Appreciation of Art or Artifacts
- Strong Leadership Skills

Thank you for your assistance and your suggestions.