Dear Parents / Guardians: Riverside Brookfield High School is excited to present a parent and community viewing of the award-winning documentary, SCREENAGERS, on Tuesday October 16th, in the RBHS Auditorium at 7 pm.

About the film

Physician and filmmaker, Delaney Ruston decided to make SCREENAGERS when she found herself constantly struggling with her two kids about screen time. Ruston felt guilty and confused, not sure what limits were best, especially around mobile phones, social media, gaming, and how to monitor online homework. Hearing repeatedly how other parents were equally overwhelmed, she realized this is one of the biggest, unexplored parenting issues of our time.

As a director, Ruston turned the camera on her own family and others—revealing stories of messy struggles over social media, video games, academics and internet addiction. SCREENAGERS goes far beyond exposing the risks of screen time, it reveals multiple approaches on how parents and educators can work with kids to help them achieve a healthy amount of screen time.

SCREENAGERS is blazing a new model of distribution. The community viewing model brings parents and educators together to start a conversation nationwide about how screen time impacts their lives and what they can do about it.

About the Screening

In conjunction with the PTO, RBHS will provide a free viewing of SCREENAGERS to any parent or community member within the surrounding area. Freshman and Sophomore students will view the documentary during the day, however all students are encouraged to attend the evening screening. Light refreshments will be available at no charge in the Cafeteria following the documentary. There is no charge for this event however ticket reservations utilizing the following link are mandatory.
