AGHS strives to make every student activity a memorable occasion for all who attend. Please remember that all student attendees must adhere to all school rules and policies. Non-Student Guests must also acknowledge these regulations.

ENTRANCE: ALL STUDENTS & GUESTS MUST ENTER WITH THEIR CURRENT SCHOOL ID AND TICKET.

TIME OF ARRIVAL: All students must be in attendance by 8:30 PM. Students are advised to make dinner plans accordingly. Extreme late arrivals will result in not being admitted. Your ticket will not be refunded. Once you check into the activity and then leave, you may not return.

DRESS CODE: Formal – Dress, Tuxedo, Suit or Dress Slacks with Jacket and Tie. No Jeans. No risqué items. No entrance into the event for students not adhering to the dress code. Please see your counselor or administrator if you need assistance with the dress code requirements.

DANCE ETIQUETTE: Any provocative dancing will not be permitted. Wristbands may be issued at check-in. If a Student is dancing or displaying inappropriate behavior, a gentle reminder will be given to abide by the policy. If a second warning is deemed, the Student may be asked to leave the activity and their Parent/Guardian will be contacted. Students removed will not be eligible for a ticket refund.

DRUGS/ALCOHOL/TOBACCO: All Students will refrain from drug/alcohol/tobacco intake on this evening. Random screening for alcohol may be performed. Any Student found to be under the influence or in possession of drugs/alcohol/tobacco may be subject to disciplinary action under the school rules and/or subject to arrest. Additionally, AGHS Students will be suspended up to a maximum of 5 days and may lose all extra-curricular activities as determined by the Superintendent’s Designee of Suspensions and Expulsions. All Students found in a vehicle containing drugs, alcohol or a passenger under the influence will also be subjected to the above disciplinary action. Arroyo Grande Police Officers will be in attendance to help enforce this policy.

AGHS GUESTS: Guests that have graduated must attach a copy of their California Driver’s License/ID card. Current Student Guests must attach a copy of their School Demographic Sheet displaying picture, date of birth and emergency contact information. High School students must be enrolled in grades 10-12 to be eligible to attend. ALL GUESTS MUST BE UNDER THE AGE OF 21.

GOOD STANDING: All AGHS Students must be in Good Standing with no recent disciplinary issues, attendance issues, on track to graduate with a current GPA of 2.0 or better and/or no more than one failing grade on the most recent progress report card. Students with 2 or more F’s, even if their GPA is above 2.0 do not qualify to attend. The most recent grading period is used to determine eligibility except where the student has recently enrolled at AGHS and has not received the most recent report card. Administration reserves the right to review all Student grades and attendance prior to the event to confirm eligibility. You must be debt free or have a current payment plan in good standing.

 I have read, understand & support the enforcement of these regulations. I understand that I must be in good standing to attend the event.
