

Bear Tavern Principal's Online Summer Book Club Tutorial

1. CLICK HERE or go to www.flipgrid.com and enter the code "btsummerbookclub."
2. You will be asked for a password. Enter "BearTavernReads" (case sensitive).
3. Click on the topic that you are responding to (each section will be its own topic as we proceed through the book). Before we start the book, students are welcome to click the "Introductions" topic and share who they are and a little bit about their summer reading plans, goals, etc.
4. Remember - the site is password protected, so posted information is secure.
5. To view the existing responses, just click them.
6. To post a response, click the green symbol with a 'plus sign.'
7. Responses can be up to 90 seconds.
8. Each week, I'll post some open-ended questions to get students thinking and interacting with the book and each other. So check in regularly!
9. If you have any questions throughout the experience, email me at christopherturnbull@hvrsd.org

Questions:

Section 1: Chapters 1-20.

Choose any one, a few or all of them to answer, it's up to you!

- What do you think of the book so far? What do you like? Does it remind you of any other books or experiences you've had?
- Roz had to adjust & keep on learning in order to survive the first few days on the island. What was a time that you had to keep trying & adjusting to find success?
- When Roz finally camouflaged herself, she was able to see what the animals were really like & began to understand them more. If you could pick one place to blend in and really get a secret look at, where would it be?
