NOMINATIONS NOW OPEN FOR THE TV30 2020 HIGH SCHOOL COACH OF THE YEAR AWARD

PLEASANTON, CA – (1.15.20) Did you have a Coach this academic year that made a difference in your sports training and will also have a positive impact on you the rest of your life? Now is the time to nominate him or her for the Tri-Valley Sports Final Outstanding High School Coach of the Year Award.

This is the sixth year for the Coach of the Year Award. Last year's winner was varsity boys water polo coach Nathan Brandon from Livermore High School who was nominated by both students and parents for the work and inspiration he provided. The Coach of the Year was picked by popular vote throughout the Tri-Valley.

"This will be the tenth year of our outstanding high school athletic awards for students," said TV30 Executive Director Melissa Tench-Stevens. "The coach motivates and provides guidance to the students and many times their support is so powerful it influences the students for the rest of their lives. We look forward to recognizing this year's winning coach for his or her dedication with this award."

It's easy to nominate your favorite coach. Just go to tv30.org and click on the "Nominate Your Coach" banner on the website. Fill out the short form to nominate your favorite coach. The winner will be announced at this year's Tri-Valley Sports Final Outstanding High School Athletic Awards

Event taking place on April 14, 2020 at the Robert Livermore Community Center. The deadline to submit the nomination is at midnight on March 29, 2020.
