COCISD Band Program's legacy of success continues to grow

COCISD Band students competed at the 2019 UIL Concert and Sight Reading Contest at Caney Creek High School on April 15th-16th. For the second consecutive year, the COHS Band received a Superior 1st Division rating in Sight Reading. This is the second 1st Division rating this year, after the marching band earned a 1st Division rating in the fall.

The LJH Symphonic Band also received a Superior 1st Division rating for the second year in a row, and had the best Concert stage scores out of all the ATSSB middle schools for the region. The LJH Concert Band earned a rating of Excellent in Sight Reading. LJH is the only ATSSB middle school to have two competitive ensembles.

"The success of the band program is due to the dedication and work ethic of our band students and continued community support," said LJH Band Director Suzanne Charney.

The COCISD Band program has earned more 1st Division ratings in the past four years than the total number of 1st Division ratings in school history.

Lincoln Junior High 8th graders get taste of UH college life

Lincoln Junior High eighth graders enjoyed a recent tour of the University of Houston. They saw what dorm life is like and ate in the Cougar Woods Dining Hall among college students. "They learned about the various colleges within UH, how to get accepted, SAT and ACT scores and admissions—all things they need to start thinking about now," said Counselor Aimie Patrick.
