

Acceptable Use for Technology in the Classroom

LoveWorks Scholars will be issued Chromebooks for academic use in the classroom. This privilege will provide Scholars with opportunities to expand their learning. With this privilege, students must be responsible for the use and care of their Chromebook. Any misuse will result in consequences that align with LoveWorks Behavior Tiers.

Expectations

- Students will use the computers/technology as instructed to do so by the teacher.
- Students will only use the Chromebook that is assigned to them.
- Students will treat the computers/technology with respect. Students will not be permitted to run with the equipment, physically misuse the equipment, or any other form of misuse.
- Students must work with the class/group and only go the site(s) that they are instructed to access.
- Activities related to school projects are the only appropriate use of the internet. Students are not permitted to check sports scores, go to entertainment sites such as music, TV, movie or band sites, go to game sites, etc.
- Students may not go to social media, chat rooms or use Instant messenger programs.
- Any use of email or websites are not private. LWA staff can review student use at any time.

Consequences

- If Chromebook is damaged through misuse, you will be required to pay for the repair.
- If a student does not follow the above rules regarding use, a call will go home to the parent from the student and teacher explaining the error in judgment and the consequence.
- Teachers may take your Chromebook away.

I accept these expectations and consequences and have discussed them with my family.
