ENGINEERING OPTIONS

For Middle School Girls

"Options opened up possibilities that she'd never considered."

- Tania, mother of former participant

Who: Middle School Aged Girls in Grades 6-8
When: Sunday, June 16, 2019, 5:00 p.m. to Wednesday, June 19, 2019, 5:00 p.m.
Where: University of Evansville
 1800 Lincoln Avenue
 Evansville, Indiana 47722
Cost: $300 – Cost includes all lodging, meals, snacks, materials, transportation during program, trip fees, guides, and special events.

Enrollment is limited to 20 participants.
 We reserve the right to cancel if minimum enrollment is not met.
 Application deadline is April 1, 2019.

Hosted by the University of Evansville College of Engineering and Computer Science, the camp is designed to give middle school girls a better understanding of what types of opportunities are available in fields most closely related to science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) through hands-on projects and other activities. Team-building and confidence-building activities are also part of the fun.

Participants completing the program are eligible to receive a $100 scholarship toward future attendance in the Engineering OPTIONS for High School Girls program (when qualification standards are met).

For more information, visit www.evansville.edu/options or contact Kimberly Higgins at 812-488-2651 or kh209@evansville.edu.
