April is Autism Month- Sensory Activities for Kids with Autism

Minion Sensory Bottle – I'm sure it's not just my nephews that are totally obsessed with minions—or is it? Either way, this minion sensory bottle is totally cute and sure to entertain your kids! It's creative and deceptively simple!

Moon Sand/Cloud Dough – You could spend a lot of money on moon sand, or you could just make it yourself! Who knew it was so easy? Your kids are sure to enjoy the feel of this soft, smooth sand, and they'll love using it to create whatever shapes their little hearts desire!
